

Canine Taxi

Think of it as a chauffeur service for your dog. We'll collect them from home, or a nominated local train station, and drop them back clean and happy after a day at the retreat.

Our vans are properly kitted out for the job, with air flow, heating, air con, and rubber-floored crates, so it's a comfortable ride either way.

And if you're not around to let us in, that's fine too: every member of staff with home access is DBS checked, so your dog (and your house keys) are in safe hands.
